Some words from Paul:
Having grown up in Perth, it's nice to be invited to judge at Perth Royal and catch up with some friends and family while I'm here. I'm a big fan of Western Australian wines and look forward to packing a few dozen to take home with me.

Sarah CROWE

JUDGES

Troy OVERSTONE

Troy grew up in Southwest WA just as the wine industry there was emerging. As a young child he helped his Grandparents and Uncle plant vines at their property in Metricup. This would later become Woody Nook Wines where his uncle was Winemaker for over 30 years.

Although this spiked his interest in wine growing up, it wasn't until he spent seven months living in the Loire region in France at 21 that an epiphany moment occurred during a dinner there. An amazing food and wine pairing that led to questioning how can you get these amazing and complex flavours just from a grape?

This eventually led to him studying a Bachelor of Science degree in Viticulture and Oenology at Curtin University.

Adriaan FOOT

Adriaan holds the position of senior winemaker at Stanton and Killeen in Rutherglen, Victoria.

Originally hailing from Cape Town, South Africa, he completed a Bachelor's Degree in Viticulture and Oenology at Stellenbosch University in 2007, after which he worked as a winemaker in the South African wine industry for several years.

The lure of experiencing a vintage at one of the world's most esteemed wineries in California's Napa Valley set him on the path of itinerant winemaker, and several vintages followed in Australia, New Zealand and California again, including a stint as a consulting winemaker in India. Adriaan settled in the Great Southern region of WA in 2019 where he spent 4 vintages working with some of the finest cool climate fruit in the region. He joined the S&K team in 2023, who are renowned for producing some of the finest fortifieds and Portuguese variety table wines in Australia.

Adriaan has completed the AWRI's intensive Advanced Wine Assessment Course and has judged at several regional and capital city wine shows both in South Africa and Australia.

After graduating from a Bachelor degree of oenology from Toulouse University, she spent 5 years working across multiple regions in France including Bordeaux, Alsace, Corsica and Burgundy. In 1995, she travelled to Australia to work vintage at Brown Brothers in Victoria. The next year, she moved to Western Australia where she worked for the next 5 years. She spent another 6 years as winemaker for Rosemount Estates in the Hunter Valley before joining Watershed in Margaret River in 2007 as head winemaker.

In 2019, she was appointed Chief Winemaker for Calneggia Family Vineyards crafting wines for the Rosabrook, Bunkers and Calneggia brands. She has completed the AWAC course and in 2014, she was a scholar of the Len Evans Tutorial. Aled SHAW

I have always been fascinated by wine, and after pursuing a Bachelors of Viticulture and Oenology gained experience in the broader wine industry around the world including New Zealand, Australia, Germany and the US.

This led me to Faber Vineyards in the Swan valley where I am currently Assistant Winemaker.

ASSOCIATE JUDGES

Marcello FABRETTI

Marcello discovered wine as an Arts student while working in hospitality. After completing two vintages in Umbria, Italy in his early 20s, he became fascinated by wine production and enrolled in a Bachelor of Science (Viticulture & Oenology) upon his return to Australia.

While pursuing his studies, he and his father purchased a run-down vineyard in the Mt Barker Sub-Region of the Great Southern and after landing a cellar role at West Cape Howe's Old, he quickly got promoted to Vintage Assistant Winemaker and subsequently spent three years in the Great Southern.

Upon falling in love and moving to Italy to get married, he spent several years working for a couple of high-end producers in Umbria (Famiglia Cotarella) and Le Marche (Angeli di Varano) making modern wines out of an eclectic mix of French and Italian varieties.

Upon his return to Australia and with babies in tow, he worked a vintage at the historic Houghton's Middle Swan winery, and then spent two years at Flying Fish Cove Winery in Margaret River as Production Winemaker, making wine for several award-winning, quality focused Margaret River producers.

Marcello has been based in the Swan Valley since 2019 and is Senior Winemaker at Nikola Estate.

Cassandra CAMERER-CHARLICK

Cassandra is a Margaret River-based wine, travel, and food writer and presenter, regularly contributing to publications including Halliday magazine, Ray Jordan's Wine Review, Australian Traveller, International Traveller, Delicious Magazine, Escape Magazine, The Urban List, T Magazine and more.

She has a wine column in International Traveller and is a reviewer and writer for Decanter Magazine, the WA Good Food Guide, and Wine Pilot, and is an associate judge for wine shows.

She's a regular television presenter on Channel Nine's Our State on a Plate. Alongside being in-demand MC, Cassandra hosts in-person and virtual wine and food events, while also delivering immersive wine experiences throughout Western Australia's wine regions with Earn Your Vino.

Cassandra has worked with Tourism Western Australia, several regional tourism associations, and premium wine, food and tourism businesses as an MC and delivering both written and photographic content for clients.

In 2023 she was awarded a fellowship at the Wine Writers Symposium in Napa Valley. One of the greatest pleasures of wine and travel is that there is always an infinite amount more to learn, and she finds joy in discovering the stories that fall between the cracks.

Her work has taken her around the world; however, one of the best parts of travel is arriving home. There's no place she'd rather unpack her suitcase - and fill her wine glass - than Margaret River, on Wadandi country.

Jen BOUND

My love affair with wine began with hospitality and progressed into winemaking when I decided to go back to school in 1999 and undertake a Bachelor of Wine Science at EIT in Hawkes Bay, New Zealand. Since completing my studies many moons ago, I have been fortunate to make wine and meet wine minded people in New Zealand, India, Austria, Australia, and China (where I competed in the 2015 Ningxia Wine Makers Challenge).

In 2021 I completed The AWRI Advanced Wine Assessment Course (AWAC) and began my journey into Australian Wine Show Judging with Associate positions at the Perth Royal Wine Show, Geographe Wine Show and The Western Australian Boutique and Single Vineyard Wine Show. In 2022 I was accepted into the Diploma of Digital Technologies at Flinders University, a STEM Project for Woman in Wine, where I have been privileged to meet a wealth of wonderful woman in the wine industry and learn from great people.

I reside in the beautiful Southwest here in WA with my husband Ben Johnston who is a viticulturist in Margaret River, and two children Edie and Nikora. I have been a winemaker and proud guardian of Houghton wines since 2019... west life is for me.
