MEDAL ARTWORK

Gold, silver and bronze in each class or subclass and overall champions will be awarded with certificates and the right to use the Perth Royal Beer Awards medal artwork on their winning products.

RASWA will provide winners with a medal template in PDF or JPEG format. It is the exhibitors' responsibility to arrange their own printing.

An exhibitor shall not advertise or allow to be advertised by any means whatsoever and in particular by broadcasting, television, pictorially or in writing, the fact that any exhibit has won an award at the Perth Royal Beer Awards unless such advertisement shows clearly:

1. The name Perth Royal Beer Awards;
2. The year of the award;
3. The class or subclass in which the award was won;
4. The title of the award or trophy won where applicable.

Awards received by an individual beer will bear the year of award and the name of the competition: Perth Royal Beer Awards and as a general rule shall only be applied to beer bearing the name under which the exhibit was entered.

However, in recognition that a beer could be entered in a competition before a beer has been finally allocated to a brand, portability of an award so that it can stay with the beer which won it shall be permitted providing the Perth Royal Beer Awards section conditions allow.

Awards received by a class of beer (e.g. "Champion Large Brewery") shall not be used to suggest the individual beer has received any particular distinction. These awards will not be presented on crown sealed and corked bottles, cans and PET containers in the form of a medal.

The use of gold discs, silver discs and bronze discs to promote anniversaries, events, sponsorship and the like, must not be used. Stickers and symbols or other devices should be sufficiently differentiated from show medals in terms of shape and/or colour to ensure no confusion.

It is recognised that identification stickers attached to a bottle for beer not intended for resale, such as supplied to airlines, may fall outside the control of the producer.

Any exhibitor making improper use of awards won at the 2024 Perth Royal Beer Awards for advertising purposes may be disqualified from any future Perth Royal Beer Awards.

AWARD WINNERS

Where possible, award winners and outstanding exhibits will be promoted during the proceeding Perth Royal Show, Perth Royal Food Awards presentations, sponsor functions and Perth Royal Food Awards Gala.

Successful gold or champion winning exhibitors may have an opportunity to supply RASWA with award winning products at a negotiated rate, which will enable the winning products to gain exposure by being featured at any of the following Perth Royal Show activities; functions; dinners; official openings; other related activities.

EXCESS JUDGING STOCK

All exhibits become the property of RASWA and will be disposed of in accordance with health regulations. Excess stock may be used for promoting award winners at award functions and media opportunities or for educational purposes such as workshops.

In all classes and subclasses the exhibit, as stated on the entry form, may be inspected and checked by a representative of RASWA and/or nominee.

All exhibits must conform to the respective Acts of the States and the Commonwealth of Australia, which govern the production of Australian Beer, the Food Standard Codes and the Health Act and Regulations.

DISQUALIFICATION

No entry will be received from any person or persons disqualified by this or any other similar Society during the period of such disqualification. Should any such entry be accepted it shall, when discovered, be deemed void and the entry fee and beer shall be forfeited, and other affiliated Beer Show Societies notified.

BREWERS NOTES

Breweries will be asked to provide brewer's notes at entry for some of the styles.

Brewers Notes are used to inform the Competition Manager and the Chief Steward to ensure the beer is entered in the correct class and provide judges with essential information for assessing the beer.

It is imperative that the information supplied on the entry form includes the specific attributes required for the class, is unique to the entry and is clear and concise.

Entrants are NOT to provide information that mentions the brewery or product name or contains a marketing description of the beer.

Brewers Notes should only contain important information about a beer that may impact a judge's palate, eg what type of fruit was used if fruiting, has the beer been barrel-aged and if so – what type of barrel?

The Perth Royal Beer Awards reserves the right to review and modify brewer's notes for judging purposes where it is deemed necessary to preserve the integrity of the competition.
