SUBMITTING ENTRIES

To submit entries to the Perth Royal Smallgoods Awards:

1. Read through the 2024 Perth Royal Smallgoods Awards Schedule;
2. Submit your entries and complete the payment for your entries online via perthroyalfoodawards.raswa.org.au/food/beverage-competitions
3. On confirmation of your entries, please follow information provided on product delivery to ensure that deliveries arrive in time.

There is no limit to the number of entries per exhibitor, however, each exhibit shall only be entered once in each class or subclass.

Exhibitors are responsible for selecting the correct classes or subclasses and abiding by the section conditions and published deadlines.

No entry will be accepted, until the entry fee is received in full. Entry fees will not be refunded.

COMMERCIAL TITLE

Exhibitors are required to detail the Commercial Titles of all Exhibits on the Application for Entry. Commercial Titles will be published in the Results Catalogue, online and used for promotional material. Commercial Title, includes but is not limited to, the brand name and product description as it appears on the Exhibit's primary commercial label.

COMMERCIAL AVAILABILITY

Exhibits must meet the following criteria for Commercial Availability. Exhibits may be disqualified if they are not commercially available at the time of judging: **

- Produces or manufactures its products from premises in Australia to a commercial standard (at the discretion of RASWA);
- Each Exhibit entered must be the absolute property of the exhibitor and must be commercially available in Australia;
- Exhibits must be taken from a normal production run and must be identical to those commercially available;
- At the time of judging, RASWA may conduct an audit to compare Exhibit samples with those commercially available;
- Supplies goods in the relevant category on an ongoing basis at wholesale or retail level in Australia; and
- Generates a turnover that is reasonable for a commercially viable business from the sale of products that are eligible for entry in this competition (unless specified otherwise).

 Wine and Chocolate are the only exceptions, where the product must be commercially available within 3 months of judging.

ELIGIBILITY OF PRODUCTS

All products must comply with the requirements of the Australian Food Standards Code for both product and packaging. Exhibits not complying with the Australian Standard, will be disqualified.

ORIGIN OF EXHIBIT

All exhibits must be made from 100% Australian grown and farmed produce. The competition is open to commercial manufacturers.

A commercial business:

- Produces or manufactures its products from premises in Australia to a commercial standard (at the discretion of RASWA);
- Supplies goods in the relevant category on an ongoing basis at wholesale or retail level in Australia; and
- Generates a turnover that is reasonable for a commercially viable business from the sale of products that are eligible for entry in this competition (unless specified otherwise).

The brand owner or licensed user of the brand must submit the entry.
Entries must be submitted under the contact name.

DEFINITION OF EXHIBITOR

An Exhibitor means a person, firm, partnership, company or body corporate, which in the opinion of RASWA:

- Manufactures or processes fine food produce; or
- Has product manufactured, packaged or processed under contract for the purpose of sale under the registered business name of the Exhibitor as stated on the Application for Entry
- All Exhibitors who have their product made under contract must identify the Producer on their Application for Entry.

DEFINITION OF PRODUCER

A Producer means the registered premises that manufacture the product entered into the Competition.

CLASS TRANSFERS & WITHDRAWALS

- It is the sole responsibility of the Exhibitor to enter the Exhibits in the correct Class and Competition or be subject to disqualification without refund of Entry Fee;
- RASWA may, at its discretion, without any liability and without the prior approval of the Exhibitor, disqualify or transfer an Exhibit into a different Class than that stated on the Application for Entry if in its opinion, the Exhibit has been entered in the wrong Class.
- If an Exhibitor wishes to withdraw an Exhibit, they must do so in writing to the Perth Royal Food Awards Coordinator.
- Once entries have closed, there will be no substitution of products. The products which have been entered in the online Application for Entry are those samples that are required to be delivered for judging.
- Once entries have closed, products can be moved into another Class, however no products are able to be substituted for a new entry.

THIRD PARTY MANUFACTURING

An exhibit (i.e. product) can be submitted by either the producer or the brand owner who has had the product produced under contract by a third party.

The contract producer must be listed as part of the entry process and recorded as the “contract manufacturer”.

The exhibitor’s name and the product name as recorded in the entry process, will be published in the results catalogue and should they be awarded, on any champion awards paraphernalia.

OBLIGATIONS FOR MEDAL & CHAMPIONSHIP WINNERS

Following judging, RASWA hosts awards events which consists of a selection of award winning produce for consumption. Successful medal winning exhibitors may be required to supply a reasonable quantity of award winning produce at cost price. The supply of products will enable winning products to gain exposure by being featured at the events.

ENTRY FEES

$50.00 per entry (plus GST)

Full payment must be received by RASWA no later than the closing date of entries.

RASWA will not validate online entries until payment is received.

There will be no refund of entries withdrawn, not delivered or disqualified unless the entry is withdrawn with the Event Coordinator approval.

DELIVERY OF EXHIBITS

Exhibitors may deliver exhibits directly to Claremont Showground on Friday 18 October 2024 between the hours of 9am and 4pm. No deliveries outside of this period will be accepted.

Royal Agricultural Society of WA
Perth Royal Food Awards
Wheel + Bull
Claremont Showground
1 Graylands Road
CLAREMONT WA 6010

RASWA cannot be held responsible for any theft, loss, delay or damage during the transport of entries.

All exhibits must comply with the requirements of the Australian and New Zealand Food Standard Code, except where stated. All exhibits may be subjected to examination to ensure compliance with these standards.

All exhibits must provide an ingredients list and nutritional panel on the appropriate product container, or attached to the container, for each entry.

Boxes containing exhibits must weigh less than 12.5kg in total.

Early receipt of exhibits will be accepted if prior notice is given by contacting the Competition and Event Coordinator at the Royal Agricultural Society of Western Australia on (08) 6263 3100 during office hours.

IDENTIFICATION LABELS FOR DELIVERY

Once entries have closed and payments processed, exhibitors will receive an email from Perth Royal Food Awards (PRFA) which will include:

- PDF of e-labels to be printed and securely affixed to EACH exhibit;
 - Summary of Entry;
 - Map for delivery of products and Instructions
1. It is the responsibility of the Exhibitor to check the information on the Summary of Entry to check the information is correct and accurately reflects the Classes into which the exhibits have been entered.
 2. Exhibitors are required to print these labels in the precise format that they are sent, preserving size, font etc. and securely attach them to each exhibit submitted for entry.

Labels can either be printed on paper, cut out and affixed with CLEAR packing tape, or alternatively printed (using a laser printer) on AVERY L7163 adhesive labels (99.1 x 38.1mm x 14 per page)

Please ensure that the BARCODE on the PRFA label is clearly printed and visible.

3. Please ensure that your email address on your Perth Royal Food Awards (PRFA) Exhibitor competition profile is correct as this is where labels, documentation and information regarding the competition will be sent. The PRFA cannot be responsible if the Exhibitor does not receive correspondence due to an incorrect email address.

It is the responsibility of the Exhibitor to communicate with the PRFA Event Coordinator should they not receive their entry documentation and correspondence.

Entries not bearing the PRFA competition labels, will not be judged.

EXCESS JUDGING STOCK

All exhibits become the property of RASWA and will be disposed of in accordance with health regulations. Excess stock may be used for promoting award winners at award functions and media opportunities or for educational purposes such as workshops.

Unopened products within their Use By or Best Before date may be given to charities that facilitate the safe and timely distribution of food to people in need.

AWARDS PRESENTATION

Awards will be announced and presented at the competition specific awards presentation, organised by RASWA. This is a great event celebrating and networking with winners from the Perth Royal Food Awards, announced throughout the evening.

Award winners are expected to collect their award(s) or arrange for the collection by their agent at the awards presentation. If RASWA is required to mail trophy awards, the cost will be the responsibility of the trophy winner. RASWA will not be responsible for storing awards after the awards presentation.

JUDGING PROCESS & CRITERIA

Judging will commence at 9.00am on Tuesday 22 October and Wednesday 23 October 2024.

Judging is closed to the public.

Judging is conducted using the 100-point scoring system.

All entries are assessed and judged “blind” and on their own merits against the following criteria:

Visual (Raw)	5
Tenderness	10
Juiciness	10
Flavour	35
Overall Liking	40
TOTAL	100

Our judging process is designed to identify and appropriately manage conflicts, ensuring the integrity of our awards.

Judges are chosen on their industry knowledge and expertise and come from one or more of a broad range of industry sectors, including, but not limited to industry educators and researchers, producers, manufacturers, technologists from industry, product retailers and distributors, and product users.

Judges shall not at any time prior to the announcement of awards have access to or any knowledge of the identity of the maker of the exhibit. Judges shall not have access to any exhibit other than from the plate containing it, which will be presented to them by the stewards.

Judges have the right to refuse conferring an award if in their opinion a product is not of a satisfactory quality.

Awards shall be determined by the judges on the following points scale:

Gold	90.0 + points
Silver	82.0 – 89.9 points
Bronze	74.0 – 81.9 points

AWARDS

Winners of gold, silver and bronze in each class will be awarded with certificates and the right to use the Perth Royal Food Awards medal artwork on their winning products.

Entries receiving 18+ or more points and a gold award are eligible for the champions competition.

The gold medal entry in that class with the highest points, will be awarded the champion medal.

Champions will be awarded champion medal awards and certificates and the right to use the Perth Royal Food Awards medal artwork on their winning product.

MEDAL ARTWORK

Gold, silver and bronze in each class or subclass and overall champions will be awarded with certificates and the right to use the Perth Royal Food Awards medal artwork on their winning products.

RASWA will provide winners with a medal template in PDF or JPEG format. It is the exhibitors' responsibility to arrange their own printing.

An exhibitor shall not advertise or allow to be advertised by any means whatsoever and in particular by broadcasting, television, pictorially or in writing, the fact that any exhibit has won an award at the Perth Royal Food Awards unless such advertisement shows clearly:

1. The name Perth Royal Food Awards;
2. The year of the award;
3. The class in which the award was won;
4. The title of the award or trophy won where applicable.

The use of gold discs, silver discs and bronze discs to promote anniversaries, events, sponsorship and the like, must not be used. Stickers and symbols or other devices should be sufficiently differentiated from show medals in terms of shape and/or colour to ensure no confusion.

Any exhibitor making improper use of awards won at the 2023 Perth Royal Food Awards for advertising purposes may be disqualified from any future Perth Royal Food Awards.

AWARD WINNERS

Where possible, award winners and outstanding exhibits will be promoted during the proceeding Perth Royal Show, Perth Royal Food Awards presentations, sponsor functions and Perth Royal Food Awards Gala.

Successful gold or champion winning exhibitors may have an opportunity to supply RASWA with award winning products at a negotiated rate, which will enable the winning products to gain exposure by being featured at any of the following Perth Royal Show activities; functions; dinners; official openings; other related activities.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS

All exhibits to be presented in unbranded packaging. Original packaging must be sent separately to certify ingredients and country of origin.

All exhibits must be entered with their date of manufacture, use by date, ingredient declaration and dominate flavour characteristic clearly stated on the application for entry.

All exhibits must display a Use By or Best Before date.

Supermarket branded products are to be entered by the producing factory.

The exhibitor must be the manufacturer or the packer of the product.

All exhibits in all classes must be made from cows milk unless otherwise specified.

No entry will be received from any person or persons disqualified by the Society during the period of such disqualification. Should any such entry be accepted, it shall, when discovered be deemed void and the entry fee and products shall be forfeited, and other affiliated Show Societies notified. The Chocolate Results Catalogue will be made available via QR Code at the Awards Presentation and also on the Perth Royal Food Awards website.

Individual judge's results will not be made available to exhibitors. An aggregate score sheet and feedback sheet will be supplied.

In all classes and subclasses the exhibit, as stated on the entry form, may be inspected and checked by a representative of RASWA and/or nominee.

DISQUALIFICATION

No entry will be received from any person or persons disqualified by the Society during the period of such disqualification. Should any such entry be accepted, it shall, when discovered, be deemed void, and the entry fee and chocolate products shall be forfeited, and other affiliated Chocolate Show Societies notified.
