CHIEF JUDGE

COURTNEY TREACHER

Searching for a career with a difference, Courtney studied a Bachelor of Science (Viticulture and Oenology) through Western Australia's Curtin University. Courtney worked brief stints in the vineyards of the Perth Hills and Swan Valley before doing vintages in Margaret River at Redgate Wines and in the Hunter Valley at Tamburlaine Wines.

Courtney has long been a part of the Houghton Winemaking team, racking up 18 vintages across the Houghton Swan Valley and Nannup sites. In 2013 Courtney was appointed the winemaker responsible for Brookland Valley Wines and in 2020 the Senior Winemaker for Houghton Wines. Courtney continues to enjoy being part of a dynamic team and the challenge of making wines of varied styles under the Houghton, Brookland Valley, Goundrey, Amberley and Moondah Brook ranges.

Courtney has been involved in wine show judging at a number of local and national wine shows, and was a scholar at the prestigious Len Evans Tutorial in 2011. An experience she describes as once in a lifetime.

PANEL CHAIRS

EMMA GILLESPIE

Emma grew up holidaying with family in Margaret River, and never imagined this world-class wine region would become her much-loved home and would provide the opportunity to develop a career in wine. After completing her studies, Emma settled in Margaret River, to begin work within the region.

In 2014 an overseas vintage in the Willamette Valley, Oregon, provided an insight into smallbatch winemaking. On her return home, Emma took up a cellar hand position at Deep Woods Estate for vintage 2015. Securing the role of Operations Winemaker in mid-2016, Emma has enjoyed several roles within the Fogarty Family company including a recent appointment as Winemaker of Millbrook Estate wines. This is Emma's fourth senior judging role, after completing 3 years as associate with the Perth Show, which has been an experience of great value and enjoyment.

KIM HORTON

A fascination with wine and vineyards at a young age whilst growing up in the Swan Valley, led to Kim's first position in the wine industry during vintage 1995 with Houghton Wines. Following a successful vintage he went on to study Oenology at Charles Sturt University in Wagga Wagga.

21 years later, he finds himself at Willow Bridge in the Ferguson Valley and in front of him, an opportunity to work within a team whom have the drive and ambition to further build and enhance the Willow Bridge tradition. Kim has a firm belief that wines are made in the vineyard, the better the understanding of the vineyard and it's unique characteristics, the better the wines reflect the soil and the climate.

SIMON OSICKA

Simon has been working in his family wine business, Paul Osicka Wines, full time since 2010 and he is the third generation to do so. Previous to that Simon held various winemaking positions at Hardy's, Leasingham and Houghton. Simon has also done harvests in France, Germany, Italy and Canada.

Simon is currently chair of Judges of the Victorian Wine Show. Having called Western Australia home for a period he misses the beach and Ross Pamment.

PANEL CHAIRS

STEVE FLAMSTEED

Steve's first qualification was in food, completing a chef's apprenticeship in the mid 1980's. Steve developed a number of culinary passions, including cheese making, which would take him to France to study his trade but it was after working at Château du Bluzard in the Cote de Brouilly that Steve was inspired to become a qualified winemaker.

Steve graduated with a Bachelor of Science (Wine Science) in 1993 from Roséworthy Agricultural College, and in 1994, having maintained his passion for cheese, won a Queen's Trust Scholarship to study farmhouse cheese making in France. Steve then spent a year working as cheesemaker at Milawa in north eastern Victoria.

As a winemaker, Steve has worked for Leeuwin Estate in Margaret River (1999 – 2002) and Yarra Burn Winery in the Yarra Valley (2002 – 2003) before joining Giant Steps as Winemaker in August 2003 and was part of the team for the creation of the Innocent Bystander brand. Steve is a Len Evans Scholar and has completed several vintages overseas, including in Alsace, Provence, Brouilly and Sonoma and is an experienced wine show judge.

In 2016 Steve was awarded the Australian Gourmet Traveller Magazine Winemaker of the Year award and in 2019 was announced as Wine Communicators Victorian Legend of the Vine.

MARCUS SATCHELL

Marcus is our winemaker and co-owner. Born and bred in South Gippsland, Marcus has the region running through his veins. Having spent the last 12 years back home in Gippsland, kicking around dirt and helping shape many wines with many vineyards, there is isn't much about vineyards and wines from Gippsland that he doesn't know.

He spent his formative years in the Yarra Valley and overseas forming friendships and working with some of the best in the business. Mentors and friends that he holds dear to his heart drive his ongoing pursuit of making better and better wine. If he's not off consulting, wine judging, pruning vines or talking passionately about his craft, you might find him out in the surf or playing music around town.

JUDGES

ADRIAAN FOOT

Adriaan holds the position of senior winemaker at Stanton and Killeen in Rutherglen, Victoria.

Originally hailing from Cape Town, South Africa, he completed a Bachelor's Degree in Viticulture and Oenology at Stellenbosch University in 2007, after which he worked as a winemaker in the South African wine industry for several years.

The lure of experiencing a vintage at one of the world's most esteemed wineries in California's Napa Valley set him on the path of itinerant winemaker, and several vintages followed in Australia, New Zealand and California again, including a stint as a consulting winemaker in India. Adriaan settled in the Great Southern region of WA in 2019 where he spent 4 vintages working with some of the finest cool climate fruit in the region. He joined the S&K team in 2023, who are renowned for producing some of the finest fortifieds and Portuguese variety table wines in Australia.

Adriaan has completed the AWRI's intensive Advanced Wine Assessment Course and has judged at several regional and capital city wine shows both in South Africa and Australia.

ANTHONY DE AMICIS

Anthony De Amicis is a third-generation vigneron, growing up amongst the vines in Sunraysia, it was a natural progression that led to university in Melbourne to study winemaking.

After graduation, Anthony worked throughout regions in Australia and Italy, before settling in Tasmania's Tamar Valley.

He is the Assistant Winemaker for Brown Brothers Family Group, crafting wines for Devils Corner, Tamar Ridge, and Pirie sparkling wine labels. A wine show Judge since 2019, Anthony has judged at both the Royal Hobart Wine Show and Tasmanian Wine Show and is a recent graduate of the AWRI Advanced Wine Assessment Course.

CORINNE MUI

Corinne Mui is an award-winning wine & sake educator, writer and consultant. She holds a WSET Level 4 Diploma and has over 15 years' experience in specialist wine teaching for luxury hotels, casinos, airlines and wine traders. She is also one of the WSET certified educator training programme assessors in Asia.

Corinne gained valuable wine-making experience by working at the world-famous Henschke winery in Eden Valley, Australia. She has also made sake vintages at various sake breweries in Japan's Niigata, Yamanashi and Ehime prefectures and the Kansai region.

Corinne was inducted as the prestige Sake Samurai and VDP Ambassador in 2019. Prior to that, in 2018 she became the first person of Asian descent to be named "Sake Ambassador" by the Sake Sommelier Association in London. Wines of Germany also awarded her the title of "2017 Best Educator of the Year" in recognition of her remarkable achievements in German wine education in Hong Kong and China.

Corinne has appeared as guest wine and sake expert on television and radio programmes in Hong Kong and China. Her expertise in wine has also been sought for a popular Hong Kong television drama.

She is also a regular contributor for publications including Winenow and WINE magazines.

JUDGES

GLENN THOMPSON

With a background in restaurant and fine wine retail and a driving passion for quality wine, Glenn has completed over 25 vintages of cool climate winemaking at Bass Phillip, De Bortoli, Chandon, and Levantine Hill Estate. Extensive travel through some of the finest wineries around Australia and the world has given him an appreciation for diversity of site and the benchmarks for quality.

Glenn was a scholar at the Len Evans Tutorial in 2019 and has completed the AWAC. Glenn has judging experience in regional and capital city wine shows including Victorian Wine Show, National Cool Climate Wine Show, Cowra Wine Show, Australian Sparkling Wine Show, Tasmanian Wine Show, Royal Queensland Wine Show, Perth Wine Show, Ballarat Wine Show as well as being on the committee and chief steward of the Sparkling wine show for the last 4 years.

JAPO DALLI CANI

Head Winemaker at McHenry Hohnen Vintners

Jacopo was born in Soave, a prime wine region in the north-east of Italy. Growing up surrounded by vineyards and wineries, Japo was involved in wine production since an early age and pursued a career in winemaking.

After graduating at the Viticulture and Oenology University of Conegliano, Italy and upon gathering valuable experience in his home country, Japo decided to broaden his knowledge by travelling to other wine regions both in Europe and in the new world. Japo completed internships for top producers in France, Australia, and New Zealand.

Impressed by the quality of the wines and by the beauty of the landscape, he returned to Western Australia and settled in Margaret River. Japo joined the McHenry Hohnen team in 2016 where he was appointed Head Winemaker in 2019. He has completed the AWAC course in Adelaide and has judged at the Langton's Margaret River Wine Show, the Geographe Alternative Varieties Wine Show and the Wine Show of WA.

LIVIA MAIORANA

Livia is the winemaker for South by South West Wines, which she established with her partner in 2016. South by South West have two organically farmed vineyards in the Wallcliffe sub region of Margaret River. Whilst Livia is based in Margaret River, she also works with a team of loyal growers to respectfully make wines from across other south west regions to chase terroir driven wines.

A love of organic chemistry and the traditions and culture within a bottle of wine guided Livia into winemaking from her previous career as a Chemical Engineer. Livia has since completed vintages in Napa Valley, the Okanagan Valley, Tuscany and Sicily. In 2019 Livia was a finalist in the Young Gun Winemaker of the Year Awards and was awarded with the 'Peoples Choice' honour. In 2022 South by South West was also shortlisted as finalist for the James Halliday Dark Horse Winery of the Year Awards. Also in 2022 South by South West opened up their humble tasting shed in Witchcliffe, Margaret River.

Livia is a Wines of Western Australia (WOWA) board member and passionately represents small producers under 150T. Livia hit the judging circuit in 2022 as an Associate for the Perth Royal Wine Show, the Wine Show of Western Australia, and the Blackwood Valley Wine Show. In 2023 Livia completed the AWRI Advanced Wine Assessment Course (AWAC) and is looking to continue her involvement in wine judging going forward.

JUDGES

MEGS KOPKE

Megs is the founder and owner of Morevino, a wine store specialising in alternative varieties. Bought up on a farm in the wheatbelt, it was the love of country life that led Megs to seek out a career in the wine industry and enrol in the fledgling Wine Science degree at Curtin University.

After surviving her first vintage at Hay Shed Hill in Margaret River, she transferred her studies to Charles Sturt University to continue working full time in wineries. In the past 20 years she has been involved in various sectors of the industry including wine making, wine education, wine show judging and wine retail.

Currently residing in the Geographe wine region, Megs is heavily involved in the local wine industry and spent many years as Chief Steward for the Western Australian Alternative Varieties Wine Show. She has previously judged at the Margaret River Wine Show, Australian Alternative Varieties Wine Show, Wine Show of WA, Perth Hills Wine Show, WA Alternative Varieties Wine Show and is delighted to be back judging at the Perth Royal Wine Awards this year.

PETER MUNRO

Peter has more than 25 years of winemaking experience, across numerous diverse regions in Australia and New Zealand.

He is currently the Group Red Winemaker for Pernod Ricard Winemakers, overseeing all red wine production in Australia, in conjunction with being the Chief Winemaker of St Hugo with responsibility for the style and quality of this iconic and historical brand. Peter lives in the Barossa Valley which has been his home for the majority of the last 20 years, and loves the opportunities this gives to ride his bike through the rolling hills of the region.

RACHAEL DAVENPORT

A love for science, art and travel guided Rachael into her career as a winemaker. She studied oenology at the University of Adelaide before setting off around the world as a flying winemaker.

After 5 years of travel and vintages in New Zealand, Italy, America, France and Portugal as well as the Hunter Valley, Robinvale, McLaren Vale and the Grampians, Rachael settled in the Swan Valley before establishing a vineyard and winery in the Perth Hills with her husband Josh.

Rachael has been involved in tasting panels around the world and judged at regional wine shows.

JUDGES

TROY OVERSTONE

Troy grew up in Southwest WA just as the wine industry there was emerging. As a young child he helped his Grandparents and Uncle plant vines at their property in Metricup. This would later become Woody Nook Wines where his uncle was Winemaker for over 30 years.

Although this spiked his interest in wine growing up, it wasn't until he spent seven months living in the Loire region in France at 21 that an epiphany moment occurred during a dinner there. An amazing food and wine pairing that led to questioning how can you get these amazing and complex flavours just from a grape?

This eventually led to him studying a Bachelor of Science degree in Viticulture and Oenology at Curtin University.
